

SUE-ANN LINNEMANN
ASSISTANT PORT DIRECTOR FOR TRADE
PORT OF DALLAS/FORT WORTH

- A thirty year veteran of government service beginning in Nogales, Arizona with U.S. Customs.
- Worked in various positions in Nogales including Import Specialist, Field National Import Specialist and Supervisory Import Specialist.
- Transferred to Dallas in 1993 as the Assistant District Director for Trade.
- Worked in the Office of Strategic Trade 1998 to 2005 developing national trade policies and conducting trade analysis.
- Has made presentations for various trade groups including MEXCON and Economist Conferences.
- Has written articles for trade publications on computer circuitry and trade agreements as well as cargo security.
- Since April 2005 returned to Port of Dallas/Fort Worth as Assistant Port Director for Trade responsible for imports into Dallas metroplex as well as Oklahoma City, Tulsa, San Antonio, Austin, Amarillo, Lubbock and Midland.
- Past President of Organization of Women in International Trade of Dallas
- Frequent speaker on matters concerning importing and special interests such as Nafta, C-TPAT, ACE, Foreign Trade Zones and Classification and Valuation.